President's Message

Dear HBA Ohana:

Hawaii Baptist Academy is blessed to have the support of many individuals throughout the years. From parents and alumni, to faculty, staff, and friends, everyone has helped to transform HBA into what it is today, and the results are truly inspiring.

We are a top-rated, college preparatory school known for its high academic achievements and steadfast Christian values. All of our graduates are college bound. Our athletics program has produced outstanding players and State champions who focus on teamwork, and winning with integrity. Our visual and performing arts programs allow students to explore their creative sides and nurture their talent.

While we continue to uphold these qualities that are important to our families, we are also committed to ensuring that each student is given the opportunity to know Jesus Christ. More than 150 students were led to a first-time profession of faith in Jesus Christ this school year alone. Ministry opportunities on and off campus are abundant and have helped to shape generations of servant leaders who continue to honor God by helping others after they depart from our campus.

As a Christian community, our caring faculty and staff play a significant role in reaching out to our students and their families. We are saddened to bid aloha to the following members of our administration and faculty who will be retiring at the end of the 2011–2012 school year. Collectively, they have invested 230 years at HBA and we thank them for their faithful service to the Lord, and to His school.

- Mr. Suchart Archpru, director of plant operations, 33 years
- Mrs. Pauline Higa, 6th grade science teacher, 40 years
- Mrs. Darlene Kaneshiro, elementary school computer teacher, 41 years
- Miss Maurine King, high school social studies teacher, 52 years
- Dr. Rebecca Ovitt, elementary school principal, 41 years
- Mrs. Tanna Pestana, 4th grade science and social studies teacher, 23 years

I am delighted to report that although Miss King will be retiring from the classroom, she will continue to assist HBA in the Office of Institutional Advancement. We also wish God's blessings for HBA's former Vice President of Institutional Advancement Dr. Tim Morita. Tim accepted a call to serve as lead pastor at Olivet Baptist Church, a church that has always been and continues to be part of our HBA family.

I am pleased to share two additions to our leadership team. Mr. Ron Shiira, who was formerly my executive assistant, has been named vice president of administration. Ron will serve as chief administrative officer of the school, and he brings more than 30 years of business and nonprofit experience to the position. He is a 1975 graduate of HBA, former HBA parent, and former chairman of the school's board of directors.

Another individual with strong ties to HBA is MAC member Mr. Robert Whitfield of Dallas, Texas. Robert, who has an extensive background in development, has committed to help us strengthen our donor relationships on the mainland.

We hope that some of you have been able to visit the new home of our administration offices on Wyllie Street. This purchase, which was made possible through donations and investments, allowed us to open up the valuable space at the elementary school for use as additional classrooms. As part of the school's master plan for strategic growth, we were able to add another sixth grade class this school year.

Plans are also moving forward to improve the facilities and programs on the high school campus. We will be starting the expansion project this summer, and more details will be available in the coming weeks.

Please enjoy this issue of Soaring Eagle, which highlights our Mainland Advisory Council visit and several programs and events from the 2011–2012 school year. God continues to guide HBA through new challenges and exciting opportunities. We thank you for your support in helping to provide an excellent place for our students to learn, grow and to know Christ.

In Christ,

CHANGES EVERYTHING

Mainland Supporters Visit Hawaii Baptist Academy

For in this hope we were saved. But hope that is seen is no hope at all. Who hopes for what they already have? But if we hope for what we do not yet have, we wait for it patiently.

Romans 8:24–25

The Mainland Advisory Council (MAC) held its 36th annual meeting in Honolulu in February. During their stay, the MAC and their families visited the school's campuses, and met with students, parents, faculty and staff. They also learned more about HBA's programs and future plans. It was an opportunity for many to renew past acquaintances and visualize the dream of reaching the children of Hawaii for Christ.

"All of us enjoyed spending time with our MAC friends during the week," said Richard Bento, HBA president. "It was our hope that we were able to show them the true fruits of their prayers and gifts, and how much they are loved and appreciated."

In addition to meeting with students, and spending time with their host families, highlights from the week included a welcome reception hosted by the school's local body of supporters, The Aloha Council (TAC) and students from the President's Aloha Council (PAC). A fabulous parent-led potluck luncheon, which has become a highly anticipated tradition during MAC Week, was held at the elementary campus.

The Aloha Banquet, held on the final night at the Hilton Hawaiian Village Resort and Spa, featured an amazing musical performance by the Soldiers of Light, Halau Hula O Ka Lama Ula, and the high school and middle school choirs. The audience was also treated to a special performance by MAC member and concert pianist Betty Jean Chatham.

Reverend Deron Spoo, lead pastor of First Baptist Church of Tulsa, was the special devotional speaker for the week. First Baptist Church of Tulsa and individual members have supported the work of Hawaii Baptist Academy for nearly 40 years. Spoo captured the essence of the week's theme, "Hope

The Mainland Advisory Council is a body of Christian supporters who believe in the purpose of HBA and are committed to ensuring its financial and spiritual well-being. The Council was first organized in 1977 with 54 members. Today, 331 families from 28 states belong to the family of HBA supporters. Members attend the annual meetings in Honolulu at their own expense.

Changes Everything,” which helped to transform the week from a meeting to a revival. “We are a school with a unique story and an even greater purpose,” Bento explained to the group. “This year’s theme underscores the importance that having hope has played for us over the years. From our early beginnings, hope and faith in the Lord were, at times, all we had. But they were enough.”

Shawn Saito, a senior at HBA, gave his definition of hope when he addressed the group at one of its meetings. “To me, hope is not blind faith, but it is trust, strength, and courage that one puts into believing something will happen,” said Saito. “The Bible tells us to hope in the Lord with all of our hearts. It is not wishing that something will happen, but it’s believing that He, the Lord, has the power to do it for us.”

Shirley Taliaferro of Louisville, KY was elected MAC chair for 2012–2013. She succeeds outgoing chair Dr. Bob Byrd of Tustin, CA. Ed Spurling of Richardson, TX will serve as vice chair.

In his MAC Week report, President Bento shared that more than 150 children made first-time professions of faith, accepting Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior, during the school year. The plan to expand the high school campus and the subsequent addition of more classrooms in the near future will afford HBA greater opportunities to expand their academic and evangelistic outreach.

The Mainland Advisory Council will hold its next meeting February 18 to 22, 2013 in Honolulu. Please contact the Office of Institutional Advancement at 808-533-7094 or development@hba.net for more information.

“God has put people like you, the members and friends of the MAC, who have a vision for HBA, in our lives,” said Nikki Okazaki, middle school counselor. “I have hope that students will come to know and accept the love of God that will change their lives through our school. Because of you, we are blessed.”

SOL and Halau Perform for MAC in Texas and Oklahoma

"As I look over my prayer journal entries from the trip, each passage is filled with joy and gratitude, for God's presence was undoubtedly evident in every aspect of our tour. Though a little hectic at times, each rehearsal and concert reminded us that worship is not about the feeling, but the focus. God's hand was also clearly on the path leading up to this trip. If not for health problems that prevented me from playing volleyball this past year, I would not have been able to learn from Colonel Sagert's humility or share my testimony with hundreds of high school students in Oklahoma. I will forever treasure the many ways God overwhelmed us with blessings."

—Carissa Kano, ('12)

Soldiers of Light is a select choir group of students at Hawaii Baptist Academy. It began more than 20 years ago with eight students who met after school and on the weekends to sing for churches and civic functions. The group has grown to 27 members and is a part of the school's Fine Arts curriculum. The Gospel of Christ is presented through the group's music and testimony and today, this ministry performs at various churches in the Hawaii Pacific Baptist Convention, as well as in other evangelical Christian churches on the island of Oahu.

During fall break, the Soldiers of Light and Halau Hula O Ka Lama Ula embarked on a multi-city concert tour of churches through Texas and Oklahoma. The trip would serve as a way for students to bring some of Hawaii Baptist Academy, and a lot of aloha, to long-time Mainland Advisory Council (MAC) members and friends in the area.

"Many of the people that we wanted to visit with can no longer travel to Hawaii to the MAC meetings," said Eric La'a, development officer for HBA, who was part of the traveling group that also included HBA President Richard Bento. "We were there to thank our MAC friends for their unwavering support, as well as promote the ministry of the school and invite other Christians to partner with us."

The students performed nearly 15 concerts during the two-week trip. In addition to churches, performance venues also included several senior care homes.

A special concert was held for HBA's MAC friends and their guests at Dallas Baptist University. The highlight of the evening was the opportunity for the students to meet former HBA President Colonel Stan Sagert. At 90 years old, Sagert currently resides in Denton, Texas with his family.

"The greatest value on this trip was the special bond of love and friendship that each student developed with their host families and those mainland advisory council members who continue to support and pray for the mission of Hawaii Baptist Academy," said Todd Yokotake ('84), director of the Soldiers of Light. "President Bento says, 'God is not finished with HBA yet' and there is still more come. We look forward with great anticipation to see where God will take our school in the next chapter."

Servant Group Camp

More than 150 of HBA's high school students attended this year's Servant Group Camp at Pu'u Kahea in Waianae at the start of the school year. Led by the Christian Ministries Department, students and faculty participated in worship, fellowship and ministry activities that emphasized this year's theme "Others," from Matthew 22:37–39. Students demonstrated their love for Christ and for the people of Waianae by hosting an Ohana Day event for families in need, which included free food, a car wash fundraiser for Waianae Baptist Church, service projects, and a variety of children's activities. Servant Group is for students who are followers of Jesus Christ and desire to take the next step in serving Him through serving others.

Reflections from Camp

by Daniel Kimoto ('14)

Camps are good; Servant Group Camps are great. All camps are great times to focus on God, but Servant Group Camp goes further. At that camp, we put our faith into action and actually live out what we believe. We don't just proclaim in songs that we love God. At Servant Group Camp, we show our love for God and others through our words and actions. The theme this year, "Others," was embedded in every part of this year's camp.

The purpose of Thursday night worship was to bring our focus back to God and prepare us for the ministry we were going to be doing the rest of the weekend. My good friend and mentor gave his emotional testimony that night and inspired us to never give up pursuing God. Near the end of worship that night, we had a much-needed quiet reflection time to focus on God, forget the mistakes of the past, and prepare ourselves for what God was going to accomplish through us. Pu'u Kahea's atmosphere and the Holy Spirit helped us truly draw closer to God and cleansed our hearts and minds, so we could complete the work God had in store for us.

Friday was a day of focusing, preparation, and ministry. We started the glorious day with morning devotions that helped us to focus on God and what He wanted us to do. After more amazing worship and powerful messages, we got to work and lived out our faith. God used us to prepare and give sandwiches to the homeless, pass out flyers about Ohana Day on Saturday, clean up the camp grounds, do yard work around Waianae Baptist Church, and glorify Him in many more ways. All of this physical and spiritual preparation equipped and inspired us to love others, as Christ loved us, at the Ohana Day event.

Ohana Day, the climax of the camp, was held on Saturday. The community could come to the camp, and we ministered to them. We had free popcorn and shave ice, bouncy houses, balloon animals, free school supplies and slippers, worship, and an array of other games. However, the best way God showed them His love was by having us just talk to them and spend time with them. Joy was evident on every child's face, and it was a blessing to have the honor of displaying Christ's love. That is what makes Servant Group Camp better than just another camp. We don't just say we love God with everything and love others as ourselves. We actually have the opportunity to show our love for God by putting others above ourselves and loving them through our actions and words.

Jesus said, "Love the Lord God with all your passion and prayer and intelligence.' This is the most important, the first on any list. But there is a second to set alongside it: 'Love others as well as you love yourself.'"

Matthew 22:37–39 (The Message)

FOR HIS

Glory

Christian Emphasis Week 2012

Christian Emphasis Week (CEW) is an annual event that sets aside five days for students to focus on our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Days are filled with seminars led by faculty, staff, students and guest speakers; praise and worship time; and on and off campus ministry projects.

This year's message centered on God's glory, and as Rob Lockridge, director of campus ministries explained, "Glory is far more than just a word; it is the revelation of God's will, and may be known to each of us in our daily lives as we seek Him."

CEW featured some familiar faces that helped to provide the message and lead worship throughout the week for students, faculty and staff. Kerry Ray was this year's CEW guest speaker. Ray, a recognized student minister, camp pastor, mentor and itinerant speaker from North Carolina, first made his CEW appearance in 2010. The worship team Glowing Heart, also returned again this year. The passionate and talented college students who make up the group gave a number of inspirational and memorable performances.

I had a great time by the stage singing, clapping and having fun with my friends. CEW meant a whole lot to me. I had fun, learned new songs and new things. But most of all, I let Jesus into my heart for the first time. I seriously can't wait for next year.

Jantzen Nakai, Gr. 8

CEW was a great time of worship and a great week of committing ourselves to the Lord. The speaker told stories about things that we could relate to; things that could have happened or did occur in our lives. This made the lesson a lot easier for an eighth grader to understand.

Coming from a school that wasn't Christian-oriented, to a school that emphasizes Christianity in everything that we do was a big change at first. I had attended church with my grandma every once in a while, but I wasn't a frequent churchgoer.

In one of the seminars, I learned a different way to read the Bible and picture the scene in my head. The lesson was about the Samaritan Woman. We drew a picture on the board to see exactly what they were doing and where the story was taking place. What really surprised me was that just by drawing a quick picture with stick people acting out the scene, it can clarify what the scripture meant and what was happening.

For from Him and through Him and
for Him are all things.
To Him be the glory
forever! Amen.

This is my first year at HBA and my first CEW was such a blast. When I first heard about CEW, I thought it might not be that exciting, but I have to say that it was. You never knew what was coming next.

One of the classes I took was called, "Indescribable." The video that we watched was mostly about God and the universe. The cool part was in the Galaxy Whirlpool, there was a silhouette of a cross. I was astonished what God has done to make our universe so beautiful.

I have to say that the best part of CEW was Glowing Hearts. I got to learn new songs such as, "Nothing is Impossible."

BIG REWARDS

Joshua Miyazawa is part-owner of Products in Paradise, a local small business that specializes in edible treats. In only a few weeks, he and his three partners managed to build a business from the ground up, and turn a pretty good profit to boot. Not bad for a group of eight-year-olds.

For more than a decade, Hawaii Baptist Academy's third-grade class holds an annual Mini Market Day, the culmination of weeks of learning about spending, saving, working and planning. Small groups of students operate their own classroom stores and sell their products to a crowd of enthusiastic students, parents, and faculty and staff.

While challenging, the project is truly rewarding for both teachers and students. It is a unique and effective form of instruction that not only teaches basic economic concepts, but also incorporates social studies, language arts, math, and art.

"Mini Market is a great idea since it encourages student creativity, and teaches them real-world skills," said third-grade teacher Joyce Ito. "By using hands-on experiences the children know what it's like to be an entrepreneur." She and third-grade teacher Cyndi Hewitt orchestrate the event together. The Mini Market Day was first initiated by the late Dale Kadooka-Gomes, who taught third grade at HBA.

Students first assess demand for a particular good. Then they must gather the appropriate productive resources and make or purchase the products. Parents were asked to support their budding entrepreneurs by allowing them to earn money at home.

"You had to work to get the money you need to buy products," said Miyazawa, whose store sold brownies, lemonade, homemade sausage bread, and cheesecake. "Mostly by doing chores and I also gave my mom a massage." Miyazawa and his partners made nearly $300 on Mini Market Day.

Third grader Jacob Kikuta was impressed with the results of his business plan. "Seeing people actually pay for the things we made and were selling was exciting," said Kikuta. His team's store, Cool Paradise, sold a variety of items, including mini donuts, chips and knick knacks.

Another important life lesson that the children learn through Mini Market is the significance of philanthropy. Each year, third graders decide together how the profits from the day's total sales are to be distributed, which usually is a gift for the elementary campus, and a donation to a charitable organization.

Last year, profits went towards the Japan disaster relief effort. Total profits this year were approximately $2,500, and the class unanimously voted to make a donation to help another student on campus, who was hospitalized. The remainder of the money will be used to purchase popsicles for the entire elementary student body on field day.

"We want to help people," said Kikuta. "And I hope that we make them happy."

Alumni President's Report

Aloha HBA Graduates,

It has been three years since the formation of the Alumni Association, and I am pleased to report that our board of directors is now 10 members strong. As an alumnus of HBA and as an HBA parent, I want you to know that it is an honor to be working for my fellow graduates.

Our board members are dedicated to advancing the mission of HBA. We continue to build awareness of our ongoing activities, and as an association we are working to advance the reputation of HBA for you and future graduates who will join the ranks of the 3,700 Eagle alumni who have left the HBA nest.

We sponsored a first-time event for HBA seniors called, College 101—Everything You Need to Know, But Didn't Know to Ask. It was an informative session for both seniors who were planning to attend a college on the mainland, and their parents. Alumni panelists and their parents offered prudent and helpful advice on their experiences with the college process. We received many positive comments about the event from parents and students, and plan to hold it again in the next school year. Read more about College 101 in the story below.

We are also busy planning another exciting event called, “Nuuuanu Street Eats.” The event, which is open to all HBA families and the public, will bring together several popular lunch truck vendors for an evening of fabulous food, a silent auction, live entertainment, and more. Proceeds from the event will benefit a scholarship endowment and other activities within the mission of the Alumni Association.

We are also continuing to develop venues to meet, reconnect and fellowship with HBA alums. We will extend our outreach to you beyond e-mail, through Facebook, and via periodic mailings, such as this newsletter.

You can always find a list of upcoming school events and services available to HBA alumni at www.hba.net/alumni. Another useful tool located there is an online alumni database, enabling you to reconnect with your classmates.

Please join us for upcoming Alumni Association events, and contact us at alumni@hbaalumni.org with questions, ideas, or if you are interested in joining the association.

Mahalo, and in His and your service,

Von Kenric Kaneshiro ('83)

College 101 Event Debunks the Mysteries of the College Process

by Von Kenric Kaneshiro ('83), President, HBA Alumni Association

“College 101: Everything You Need to Know, But Didn't Know to Ask,” sponsored by the Hawaii Baptist Academy Alumni Association, was a rousing success. The inaugural event was held to help HBA juniors, seniors, and their parents successfully traverse the college process, as well as to improve the students' college experience.

Attendance for the event, which was held at the middle school campus during winter break exceeded expectations. More than 160 juniors, seniors, and their parents came for the insightful advice and helpful tips offered by alumni who were home from various schools on the mainland, and parents of alumni in college.

Veteran HBA parent Jim Utsugi moderated the panel session for parents, while math teacher and alumnus Alan Yeh ('98) moderated the student discussion. The parent panel covered topics such as college selection criteria, the application process, and financial aid.

The alumni panel for students addressed topics associated with the college life experience, and centered on four areas: life skills, time management, focusing on what is important, and putting roots down in college. Perhaps the single biggest issue that alumni said that they experienced in their first term was how much of a lifestyle adjustment it was to go from a well-defined routine at HBA to the relatively unstructured college life.

Annual Giving Report Fiscal Year 2010–2011

Dear Friends,

At HBA, we strive to achieve a balanced educational experience for our students, combining intellectual, physical and aesthetic development with spiritual and moral values. It is this comprehensive learning environment that prepares them to become tomorrow's leaders.

In order to remain a top learning institution that is making a difference, we continue to look ahead and adapt to the changing times. With tuition only covering approximately 80 percent of a student's education costs, we depend on the generosity and support of our donors for many of our expenses, such as campus and facility improvements, and financial aid for families experiencing hardship.

Gifts to support HBA provide us with the ability to respond to these needs, as well as to plan for other exciting opportunities as they unfold. The following annual giving report details the gifts received during the 2010–2011 fiscal year. Contributions received during this time totaled $838,957, of which 36 percent, or $304,006, was designated for the middle school. Thirty-nine percent, or $324,846 was given to endowed scholarships and programs, and 25 percent, or $210,105 went to support the upcoming high school expansion.

Thank you for your prayers, and for your generous gifts of time, talent and financial resources to support our school and students. We would not be able to do God's work without you.

Please contact us at 808-533-7094 or development@hba.net if you have questions, or want to know more about giving to HBA.

In Christ,

Richard T. Bento
President

Sharing Cultures and Christ

Visiting students from the Wuhan David Perry English Training Center in China with HBA student hosts

Hawaii Baptist Academy's reputation for its high academic standards and Christian emphasis extends beyond the shores of Hawaii. In January, HBA welcomed 10 students from the Wuhan David Perry English Training Center in China for a week-long opportunity to participate in a meaningful exchange of cultures between students.

Visiting students who ranged in age from first grade to tenth, stayed in the homes of host families. In addition, each student was paired with an HBA student host during school. Not only were the Chinese students able to interact with American culture and lifestyle while they were here, they were also able to experience them from a believer's perspective. Plans are in place to continue this outreach program next year.

Mahalo to the host families for their generosity in opening their homes and hearts:
